

FAQ: SUBMISSION GUIDELINES

Thank you for your interest in the Artists Recording Collective (ARC).

.INFO

Our Submissions Policy requests that you take time to listen to the music by current ARC member artists and labels. The music playing in the media player on this site is representative of the work being created by ARC member artists and labels. As you can hear, it is quite diverse and covers many styles. We have high standards where the music is concerned – it has to be of superior quality and professionalism.

.BIZ

Once you have listened to the music, please visit the roster pages and view the profiles of our members. Although there is no typical “profile” for an ARC member and we base membership upon the musical standards stated above, we do also consider other relevant factors of professionalism for ARC membership as well. Visiting the roster pages will give you an idea of the type of artist, producer and label that is a member of the ARC. We have very high standards - see <http://ArtistsRecordingCollective.biz>.

.INFO

Once you have done the above and would like to inquire, our Submissions Policy further requests that you send a written description of your music style, as well as all touring and management information available by electronic mail using the form on our <http://ArtistsRecordingCollective.info> web site.

.INFO

Please provide as much detail in your email as possible. If the information you provide seems to us that you might be a good fit with ARC, we may request that you contact us to arrange a telephone appointment to further discuss the possibility of your joining us.

.INFO

Please do not submit press kits, EPKs, links to web sites or demonstration materials unless we ask you for it. We reserve the right to admit or refuse any potential member at our sole discretion.
